

irish playography

play listing

HOMESEARCHABOUTCONTACT

My Brother Tom

Sub Title	A Country Comedy in Three Acts
Author	St. John Greer Ervine
Setting	Donaghreagh, "between the wars".
Synopsis	A comedy in which Joe Luke's return as a prodigal son to his native family in Donaghreagh after twenty years away causes much excitement. Having originally left a trail of debt and ill-feeling behind him, Joe now must face the consequences. In the process, his family's affection, natural good will and prejudices are thoroughly tested - not least those of his kindly brother Tom.
Play Type	Plays General
Number of Acts	Full-Length
Male Cast Size	11
Female Cast Size	9

Original production

Date of First Production	26 March 1952
Production	Produced by Ulster Group Theatre
Venue	Group Theatre
Original Cast	Guest Barbara Adair
	Charlie Montgomery Laurence Beattie
	Sadie Luke Elizabeth Begley
	Mamie Patricia Calderwood
	Dr. George Thompson James Connolly (1)
	Martha Mahaffey Marion Crimmins
	Peter Connolly J.G. Devlin
	Joe Luke Harold Goldblatt
	Guest Gertrude Lennon
	Tom Luke R.H. MacCandless
	Willie John Cobain J.R. Mageean